Source - Lane, Beth <http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Ridge/4001/> cfiods49@hotmail.com

Following the death of his father, George W., Jim and his younger brother, "Harve", made their way to Cave In Rock, IL to work for Dr. George W. Hill, who was married to their older sister, Kathleen.

He and Harve bought the Farmers Implement Co. a few years later and the business was run by the family for over 50 years. Jim also owned a sizable farm on Saline Creek, the Herrin Funeral Home, the Ohio Theater, and was president of the Hardin County State Bank. Biographical records indicate that Jim was the first in Cave In Rock to have a "horseless carriage", the first to have electricity and first to have running water piped into his house.

He owned a 175 acre farm on Saline Creek, The Ohio Theatre and The Herrin Funeral Home.

In 1918 he bought land that he sold to Naylor and Co. of New York which became Benzon Fluorspar Mining Co.

Notes for Beverly Herron:

General Notes:

Dates from Tombstone in Little Zion Cem. near Dixon, Webster Co., KY

By age 17, "Bev" was working as a farm laborer as shown in the 1870 census which lists Beverly Herren, age 17, and Zedic Weldon, age 15, as farm laborers living in the home of Wiley Tapp, a prominent farmer in the Jonesstand area. Just looking at the census record by itself, the conclusion might be that "Bev" was already "on his own", but in actuality, Wiley Tapp was actually "Uncle Wiley", to Beverly. Wiley Tapp was married to Nancy Crews, Sarah's sister, which made his an uncle of Bev's and brother in law of George W. and Sarah. In addition, the farm owned by Wiley Tapp was only a mile or two from the Caborn area where Bev was raised. Also, living with Wiley Tapp in 1870 was his niece, Malissa Tapp, who was 19 years. old. 2 years later, in 1872, Malissa and Beverly were married, with Wiley Tapp signing the consent statement and marriage bond for the couple. Grandpaw used to tell the story of "him and Malissa living together for a year before they got married"; then he'd laugh and Grandmaw would grin and say, "Bev!" The reference, of course, was to his living and working with Wiley Tapp when they were courting.

Malissa Tapp is the daughter of Samuel P. Tapp and Elizabeth McClendon [1]. She was born on 11 Jun 1850 in KY. She died 1932. Relationship in great grandaunt. Burial in Little Zion, Webster Co., KY.

Notes for Malissa Tapp:

General Notes:

Malissa with her brothers and sisters were raised by their uncle, Wiley D. Tapp, because they were orphaned at an early age. Her parents, Samuel & Elizabeth Tapp, along with their other children; Stacy Ann, John, Sarah, and Hiram migrated to Missouri in the late 1850's. During the Civil War, Samuel enlisted in the Confederate Army and during his absence, Elizabeth became ill & subsequently died.

Samuel returned to his children, probably by deserting, to care for them and his farm. Shortly after he came home, a party of "Yankee" soldiers raided his farm in an attempt to steal his horses. Samuel resisted and during the skirmish which ensued in the horse lot of the family farm he was shot and killed as the children watched. When word of the incident reached KY, his brother Wiley drove a wagon to Missouri and brought the children back to Jonesstand to live with him.[

Notes for William Earnest "Ernie" Herron:

General Notes:

Source: Lane, Beth <http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Ridge/4001/> cfiods49@hotmail.com

He grew up on the farm near Little Zion and went to Rayburn School near Free Union Church.

It is interesting to note that even though Papa Ernie spelled his name Hearon, like his father, later on, the marriage license is issued to W. E. Herron and Sally Taylor. The reason these differences has never been determined.

Ernie and Sally moved to Clay after they were married and opened a grocery store on Main Street. In 1903 his father, Beverly, came into the business with him and the name of the fledgling business was changed to "B. Hearon & Son, Gen. Merchandise." Later, after Grandpaw moved from Little Zion to Clay. Most of the kids were born during this time and Papa Ernie and Momma Sally added six children, four boys and two girls, to the family: Alla Mae; Joel Elbert; Everett Pride; Gordon T.; Addie Lee; and Maurice Simpson.

The store stayed on Main Street until the Wall Street fire which destroyed an entire city block in the early 1920's. The irony of the less was that the store was on Main Street and the major portion of the fire was in the building next door and down a side street. Papa Ernie, his children, and other townfolk moved all the merchandise out of the store and across the street to safety. The fire was extinguished and all the inventory was moved back into the building. Everybody went home except for a few firemen and watchmen, but during the night the fire flared up again and burned everything that had been saved earlier. Every time Papa Ernie was around when the story was told, he would lean back a little, lace his fingers across his stomach, roll his thumbs, and say, "Hummph", which was his favorite way of saying he really didn't care to discuss it anymore.

But, like the Phoenix, the store rose again, this time, on Green Street where Ernie or members of his family operated it for the next 50 years. Rarely did any of the customers ever refer to the business by its actual name. It was always called "Mr. Ernie's" or "Ernie's", even though the business name was W. E. Hearon's, then W. E. Hearon & Sons, and later, Hearon Brothers. There was no business slogan because one wasn't needed. Ask anyone who traded with Ernie, and they would simply say, "If you can't find it at Ernie's, you can't find it." A general store can ask for no better advertising than that.

Over the years, Ernie acquired a reputation as a very astute businessman. He bought and sold alot of property, business and residential, and he owned several diverse businesses in the area. Papa rarely sold anything outright, because selling on the contract as he called it, was the best way. He'd look up over the top of his glasses, roll his thumbs, and say, "I can buy a house, sell it a dozen times, and still own it." And that's what he usually did.

Papa Ernie retired, so to speak, in the early 1950's and turned the business over to the boys as he called it. But, he never did really quit. You could find him at the store almost every day and he always had his chair up near the front of the store.

Mama Sally died in 1956 & is buried in what was "the horse lot" at Grandmaw and Grandpaw's new home place which by that time was a part of the IOOF Cemetery in Clay. That's where Papa Ernie thought the family should be buried.
